

3,000 Greenwich Children in Folk Dances on Lawn

Dinner and Dance to Open Indian Harbor Yacht Club on Decoration Day.

Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD, GREENWICH, Conn., May 27.
The children of the Greenwich public schools, to the number of more than 3,000 held folk dancing on the lawn of the Havenmeyer school yesterday afternoon. The children were dressed in white, with gray sashes and ribbon bows and took the field circling around their May poles and flags. Grand stand seats were reserved for physically disabled children. The police and the Boy Scouts guarded the field.

One of the chief events to be held here on Decoration Day will be a dinner and dance at the Indian Harbor Yacht Club, which will mark the formal opening of the club. At 12 o'clock noon, the club will go into commission. There will be yacht races among the Arrow and Indian Harbor one design class during the day.

A French bulldog show will be held under the auspices of the French Bulldog Club of America, on Decoration Day, May 29, in the groto of the Edgewood Inn.

Many men and women of society attended a supper and dance given at the Field Club last Saturday evening. Among those present were Mr. Percy A. Rockefeller, Miss Elizabeth Rockefeller, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Howland Hunt, Dr. and Mrs. Tillson, Mr. and Mrs. George L. Storm, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Rafferty, Miss Mary Lanier, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Grand, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Walker, Mrs. Hugh W. Leighton, Mr. and Mrs. Marshal C. Bacon.

The annual field day for men members of the club was held yesterday. In the morning a breakfast was given at the Greenwich Country Club, after which golf was played there. In the afternoon baseball and tennis were indulged in at the Field Club and during the evening there were numerous dinner parties, music and other festivities.

A dance was given by the Coa Cob Community Association in the school auditorium last Friday night, which was attended by more than 200 persons.

For the closing performance of the season, the Fairfield Players are arranging to produce the four act comedy, "Grumpy." It will be given on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of next week at the Havenmeyer auditorium. More than $400 was realized from "Greenwich Gamblers," of which Miss Mary Lanier was chairman of the committee.

For the benefit of the East Port Chester Day Nursery, a Wagner recital will be given by Mrs. Ellen Crosby at the Round Hill home of Mrs. Charles D. Lanier on next Friday. The concert is under the auspices of the Woman's Club. Mrs. William H. Pain and Mrs. S. Crosby Mead are in charge of the tickets.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Walworth of Belle Haven gave a dinner on Monday evening in their new home in Brookside Drive. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Huckel, Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Hodgman and Mr. and Mrs. George Wharton Edwards.

Mrs. William Hodge, whose husband is playing the leading role in "Beware of the Dogs" in a New York theater has been selected as president of the Woman's Club, succeeding Mrs. Charles D. Lanier. Mrs. Gordon Grand is vice-president, Mrs. Charles R. Rowland treasurer, Mrs. Floris W. Ter Meulen recording secretary and Mrs. Frederick A. Collins corresponding secretary.

Miss Eleanor Pier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Garrett Pier, will sail soon for Egypt.

Miss Florence Stack of Brooklyn has been spending several days with Mrs. Anna M. Lillie and family of the Shore road.

Mrs. Adeline Husted Rungee and her twin daughters, the Misses Gladys and Marion Rungee, are spending three months in Derry, N. H. They have taken a cottage at Cobblets Pond.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Keen, who have rented their residence on the Dublin road to Mr. and Mrs. Henry B. Plant of New London and New York, will sail late in June for England.

Mr. and Mrs. Humphrey A. Lee of the Post road have been entertaining as their guests his father, Mr. Arthur H. Lee, and his sister, Miss Lee of Cheshire, England.

Nassau County Courses Attract Golf Devotees

GREENWICH, L. I., May 27.—This has been one of the greatest golfing weeks Long Island has ever known. Conditions could not have been more perfect. Many came down from town for the week end and holiday at the Salisbury course for the opening of its second eighteen hole course, just completed.

With the golf courses of Meadow Brook, Cherry Valley, Garden City and Piping Rock filled, and with many visitors to witness the polo games at Meadow Brook, this has been a week indicating the nearness of the summer season on Long Island.
